Stacey is a HR professional with significant experience in global Finance and Retail businesses. She is CIPD qualified with a MSc in Human Resource Management. Her professional background in the Finance industry equips her with the knowledge and understanding of highly pressurised environments.

Starting out as a graduate trainee and a recruitment officer for an investment bank, Stacey specialised in middle office management recruitment and development. She was then quickly promoted to a HR advisor role for over 700 employees providing HR support for all disciplines and levels of employment.

Stacey progressed within the investment bank into a business support role where she gained valuable financial business knowledge, working with front office traders on a proprietary desk. After two years Stacey was promoted back into the HR team as her outstanding business knowledge at that stage was highly regarded by the HR department.

Following two years of offering high level HR support to the business, the HR function was relocated. At this point Stacey grasped the opportunity to travel around the world to experience different cultures. She also had an opportunity to work professionally as a HR Manager for a major rubber manufacturer in New Zealand which she did for almost a year.

During the last five years Stacey has had two beautiful children, runs her own pottery painting business, and provided valuable HR advice and support to local and national business.

Stacey is a highly skilled communicator and develops trusted working relationships easily. She is hugely passionate about inspiring individuals to realise their potential. Her belief is that increasing confidence supports an individual to develop their skills and grow both personally and professionally. Stacey's ambition is to provide employers and managers with the confidence and tools to inspire and develop their teams for the future, and retain talent within their organisation.

Stacey strives for excellence and best practice for every business challenge or opportunity. This is balanced with her energy and enthusiasm, vital to support individuals to help them make the best decisions for themselves, and their business.
